

STATE TREASURY IN GOOD SHAPE, LEVITAN SAYS

State Expenditures Reduced by $1,500,000, Treasurer Announces

By Associated Press

Madison—Wisconsin faces 1925 in better condition than it has ever faced a year, Solomon Levitan, state treasurer, has announced.

"The rigid program of economy which has been carried out in every state department has resulted in a general lowering of the overhead expense of administration," said Mr. Levitan. "Wisconsin taxpayers were given this concrete evidence of the soundness of their state finances this fall when we were able to reduce the amount of state taxes by $1,500,000. This means that their tax bills in 1925 will be lightened by that much.

"During 1924 the Emergency Board alone saved the state nearly a million dollars. There was a saving to the state as relates to the normal schools for operation, maintenance and capital of $329,702.88 and for the university the saving on capital and maintenance was $520,000, or a total of $849,702.88 as compared with the amount proposed by the joint finance committee and approved separately by the senate and assembly.

"Despite the big bills which we have paid for highways and other improvements this year, Wisconsin today was a surplus in its general fund of $5,000,000. This represents a gain of two and a half million since last New Year.

"Not only that, but Wisconsin is far better off than any other states whose taxpayers are groaning under bonded indebtedness running into millions. Wisconsin always pays its bills as it goes and so we have not a cent of bonded indebtedness today.

"Business conditions over the state are also better this year than they were a year ago. There is a decided tone of optimism in all lines of business. Farmers are on the whole in better condition than they have been since the 1920 peak.

"Through my contact with the many banks who act as state depositaries I have been able to keep my hand pretty closely on the business pulse of the state at all times and I find that most communities show a decided improvement this fall. Farmers and business men alike have been paying up their loans and the banks in turn have been paying off their rediscounts and bills payable.

"Wisconsin people have much cause for congratulation as they face the New Year. All we need to do is to pull together and work together so as to make the most of the opportunities that the New Year offers. Every Wisconsin citizen should be a booster for Wisconsin. I have always been impressed with the way California people advertise their state. Wisconsin people have just as much to be proud of and every man, woman and child should be a loyal booster for the Badger state. Cooperation is the key to greater prosperity in 1925. When we quit playing politics and drop petty class and party bickering, when capital and labor, business men and farmers all get together and boost for Wisconsin, then we shall place our state in far better light with the nation as a whole and place ourselves on the highroad to increased prosperity."

SIX NEW FIREMEN START WORK TODAY

New Year's day was initiation day at the Appleton fire department headquarters. Six new members who were appointed about two weeks ago by Chief George P. McGillan went on duty Thursday, three starting on the day tower and three on the night tower. The new men are being put to practice on operating the fire department apparatus, driving trucks and other elements of their course of training. The first six months they serve will be on probation. The new men are: Winton D. Lansing, 941 Morrison-st.; Emerson Turney, 1332 Pine-st.; Elmer Brockman, 654 Hancock-st.; Ray Mullett, 1020 Atlantic-st.; Jules Robertson, 1151 Lorain-st.; Earl Gartz, 478 Commercial-st.

600,000 BONUS CERTIFICATES ON WAY TO VETERANS

Veterans Bureau Functions Smoothly as Period for Payment Begins

Washington, D. C. — Speeding through the channels of mail to beneficiaries of the soldiers bonus act were approximately 600,000 adjusted service certificates representing $750,000,000 of the adjusted compensation voted by congress for veterans of the world war.

The accumulation of certificates promised by the smooth-running bonus machinery now in operation in the war department and veterans bureau was put into the mails at midnight as the first distribution of benefits under the adjusted compensation act.

The law provides the certificates could not be issued before Jan. 1, and

$100,000 FIRE ON FIRST DAY OF YEAR

Milwaukee — Fire which started from undetermined cause — virtually destroyed the Seimann Lumber Co. yards here early Thursday. The loss is estimated in excess of $100,000.

The flames appeared to have started in the office building at the yards. New Year revelers on their way home congregated at the scene of the fire until it was brought under control shortly before daybreak.

TRAFFIC ON BRIDGE STARTS AT MIDNIGHT

Cherry-st bridge did not have to wait long for New Year's greetings Thursday morning. The bridge was officially opened and hardly had the tower clocks struck the midnight hour when the noise of the first motor car was heard chugging over the bridge. The J. C. Kunitz Taxi company claims the distinction of being the first to drive a car across the bridge following its opening. The taxi company received a call to drive to Neenah and decided to save time by taking the route of the new bridge. Carl Kunitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kunitz, drove the taxicab.

FOUR MURDERS START YEAR IN CHICAGO

Chicago — Four fatal shootings, two arrests for drunkenness packed hotel dining rooms cabarets and restaurants and numberless private home parties heralded the birth of the New Year here.

Prohibition agents reported the usual distribution of liquor but those who drank did so on the quiet, they said.

Stray bullets probably fired by persons joining in the celebration were declared responsible for the deaths of four men. One was a passenger on a suburban train. He died on the train. Another was killed in his home when a bullet came through a window. Two others were found dead of bullet wounds on the streets.

as the New Year began, more than 250 racks of mail were moved to the railroad station from the postal branch set up in the bureau to expedite the mailing.

The new year also found ready in the bureau 30,000 checks for amounts of $50 or less, representing the cash payment for soldiers who served only a short period, but the law requires that these not be mailed until March 1. Payments of the certificates also cannot be made before that date, except in the case of veterans who have died since applying for the bonus.

Insurance Department of State
Had Remarkable Growth
Last Year

Madison, Wis.—In view of the unprecedented growth of the state department of insurance during 1924 and of the increasing complexity of the insurance business, the duties and activities of the department have become more essential, according to a statement issued by W. Stanley Smith, commissioner of insurance.

"Since the creation of the department of insurance in 1878, the year 1924 stands out when compared to any previous year in the number of companies licensed, the number of agents licensed and the total receipts in taxes, of which approximately $300,000 was in back taxes, and in the growth of the state fire and life funds," said the statement.

"In view of this large growth and of the increasing complexity of the insurance business, the duties and activities of the department of insurance have become more essential year by year.

"During the past year there were 729 companies licensed to write the various lines of insurance. The insurance written by these companies covers every conceivable contingency and provides for indemnity against loss or damage of life, limb or property.

"In order to bring this insurance service to the citizens of our state, the department was called upon to issue 60,000 licenses to about 10,000 agents during the year. These applications for license are made by the companies so represented. Applications for license by agents desiring to write life insurance are made upon special forms furnished by the department setting forth the qualifications of the applicant for such work and are subjected to careful investigation before each such application is acted upon for approval.

Under the insurance statutes, the commissioner is charged with the duty to pass upon the applications of domestic and foreign companies for the right to do business in this state, to audit the financial statement filed annually by all the licensed companies and societies, to make annual valuations of the policy liabilities of the domestic life companies and fraternal societies, to approve rates and societies through his personal representatives.

"In addition to the above prescribed duties, the commissioner is frequently called upon to render service in the settlement of differences which may arise between the policyholder and the company. Many persons seek advice concerning the taking out of insurance and while the department will not discriminate between companies, it can give information which will be of assistance to the inquirer in reaching a decision.

"The commissioner of insurance has active charge of the state fire fund and the state life fund. He is also state fire marshal and ex officio member of the compensation insurance board and of the teachers' retirement board.

"The state fire fund was created in 1903 and in addition to all state property there are insured in it 100 county, city, village, town school district and library board units. This shows a gain of 61 units over 1923. The amount of insurance aggregates $38,000,000 of fire and $87,000,000 of tornado.

"The state life fund insures residents of Wisconsin or those who are within the state at the time of making application. The limit on one life is now $1,000, but it contemplated to ask the legislature to increase this limit.

"The business is based on the legal reserve plan and is proved at a very low cost because there are no agents employed and the cost of administration is only nominal.

"In his capacity as state fire marshal, the commissioner keeps a record of all fires occurring in the state. He makes an investigation in all cases where the facts point to a criminal origin. During the last year, 146 fires were investigated. As a result of the investigations made by the fire marshal's department for the year 1924, twelve persons were convicted of arson, two were committed to the insane asylum, one escaped and is a fugitive from justice, ten were bound over and awaiting trial and six were discharged at the preliminary hearing, making a total of arrests of 21.

"The annual appropriation granted by the legislature for the expenses of conducting the insurance department is $52,300. Including the commissioner and his deputy, there is maintained out of this appropriation a force of twenty members, divided into branches—actuarial, examining, rating, statistical, licensing and general clerical—covering the field of fire, life, casualty and fraternal insurance.

"The receipts of the insurance department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, amounted to $2,096,831.86, which represents the largest amount ever collected by this department. The state tax collected amounted to $1,479,446.95, of which the life insurance companies paid $1,080,236.95, the casualty companies $215,754.09, the fire insurance companies $183,455.94.

"Included in the $369,863.64 fees collected is an amount of $3,036.52 examination expense. This is the actual expense of the department in conducting examinations of insurance companies during the year ending June 30, 1924. The remaining amount in this item is for agent's licenses and other fees. The fire department dues are collected by the commissioner and then paid to the cities, villages and towns entitled to them.

"Part of the perceptible increase of receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, over the one ending June 30, 1923, is due to the collection of back taxes amounting to over $300,000.

"One of the tasks to which the commissioner has especially addressed himself in the latter part of this year is the much needed codification and revision of the insurance laws. He is now in the midst of this work so that it will be in proper form for presentation to the legislature."

SURVEY STREETS FOR PAVING THIS YEAR

A survey of the streets to be paved in 1925 is being made by Robert M. Connelly, city engineer, and his assistants. The task is a large one for the 1925 paving program includes five miles of streets, not including North State street which the council is considering. Petitions for and against the paving of that street have reached the council. The engineering department has thus far completed the surveying of Cherry, Richmond, St. Lawrence and Second ave. After the surveys, plans and specifications will be prepared and contractors bids will be advertised for.

Greetings for the New Year!

WE extend to all our friends a cordial, hearty wish for happiness and prosperity.

And this is a fitting occasion to reaffirm our creed, with hopes that it will make us as many friends in the future as it has in the past.

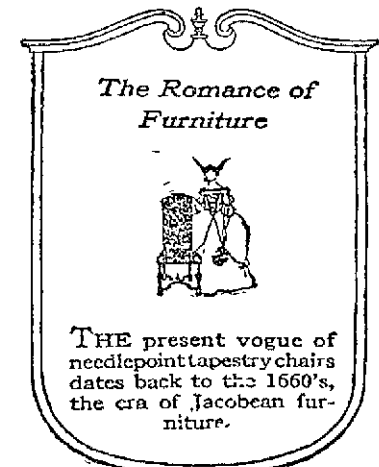

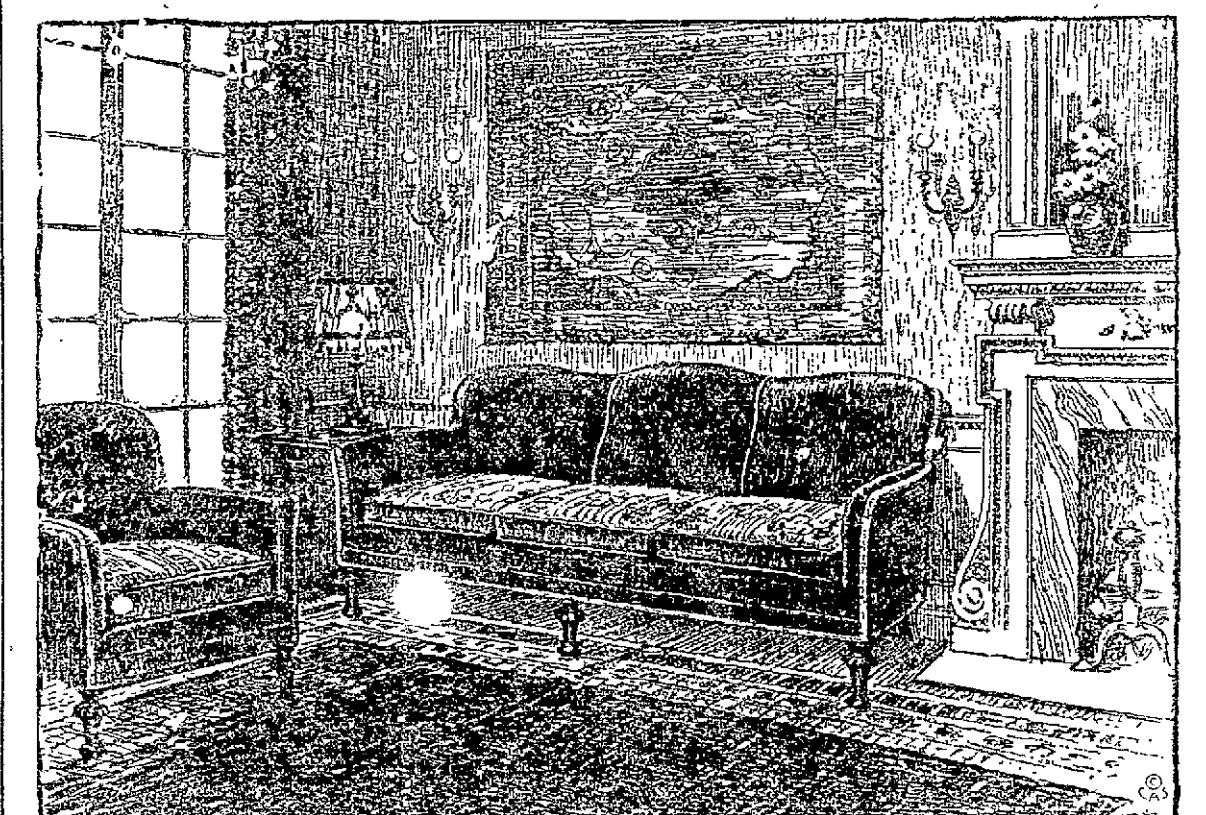

We believe in a steadfast policy of offering only good furniture, and of offering it at fair prices—based on sound values.

We believe that within our community there are enough people who care for furniture of distinction, beauty and permanent qualities to justify our policy of excluding everything that does not come up to the high standard we have always maintained.

This is our creed, and we take this opportunity to repeat it and to pledge that it will be lived up to as scrupulously through the new year as it has been through former years—and as it will be throughout our whole future of steadfast service.

G.A.R. And W.R.C. Will Meet Friday

George D. Eggleston Post, Grand Army of the Republic, will hold a very short meeting at 1:30 Friday afternoon in Odd Fellow hall. After the meeting is called to order the hall will be turned over to the Women's Relief Corps, Grand Army of the Republic, which will install its officers.

The Neenah Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, has postponed its regular meeting until Saturday, Jan. 4. Several Appleton men will attend the meeting at 1:30 in Neenah Armory, and it is probably that members of the Neenah post also will come to Appleton on Friday.

80 Couples At Elks Annual New Year's Party

About 80 couples attended the annual New Years dance of Elk lodge Thursday evening in Elk hall. Music for dancing was furnished by Gib Horst's orchestra. Many favor dances and stunts were carried out during the evening.

Martin Peeters, Lester Balliet, Charles Henderson, Edgar Schommer, Heber Pelkey, H. DeBauer, H. Schell, and Dr. W. J. Bravley were the committee in charge of arrangements.

Relief Corps Will Install New Officers

Mrs. Nellie Oviatt will be installed as president of the Women's Relief Corps, Grand Army of the Republic, at the meeting at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in Odd Fellow hall. FIRE DEPARTMENT OUT EARLY ON NEW YEARS DAY

The first fire of the New Years which the Appleton fire department was called out to extinguish occurred at 3:15 New Year's morning. While a frozen water pipe in the basement of the home of Mrs. William Krueger, 1359 College-ave, was being thawed out, a box of shavings caught fire and endangered the house. The fire was quickly extinguished, however.

Arrangements included Harold Fuller, John Harriman, Maurice Lewis, and Henry Wood.

ONEIDA CHIEF USED
HUT FIRE RUINED

Place Used by John Cornelius for Barn Was Early Day Chief's Home

Special to Post-Crescent
Oneida—Fire has taken from the Oneida reservation the last of a group of historic buildings, one that was occupied by Chief Jacob Cornelius of the Oneidas when the tribe first came here more than a hundred years ago. It was a structure that was being used as a barn by John Cornelius and was burned several days ago.

An autoist awakened Mr. Cornelius about midnight to inform him that the barn was afire. The blaze was beyond control and a team, automobile, chickens, hay and cornstalks were consumed with the building.

The barn was 36 by 40 feet in size and was owned by Oneida State bank. Mr. Cornelius had been renting it for two years. The building served as the residence of Chief Jacob Cornelius during his reign and was one of the largest structures on the reservation in the early days.

Patrick Garvey has had more bad luck than his share. This fall he

U. S. DREDGE PUT IN CONDITION FOR WINTER VACATION

Crew of Government Boat Finishes Task of Putting Dredge in Storage

Menasha—The dredge Omro tied up at the government dock at the corner of Racine and Main-sts is now laid up for the winter. The work of letting the water out of the pipes and taking the machinery apart was completed Tuesday and the crew of seven men employed on it all summer returned to their homes. They will be employed more or less all winter on government work along the river. Capt. Smith, who was recently promoted to command the Omro will look after it all winter and will continue to occupy his lodging quarters. The crew of carpenters employed on the government lock observed holiday hours New Year's day. So far they have lost no time because of the cold weather, but one day when the temperature registered 22 degrees below zero they experienced difficulty in keeping from freezing. The greater part of January will be required to complete the lock.

FALCONS PLAN TO FORM CAGE LEAGUE

Athletic Club Making Arrangements for Busy Winter Program

Menasha—Members of the Falcons Athletic club have temporarily suspended basketball practice to make it possible to decorate the hall for their New Year's party Thursday evening. Practice will be resumed immediately after New Year's with S. L. Spengler as coach.

As soon as beginners get more familiar with the game a league of at least four teams and possibly six will be organized, and a schedule adopted. Games will be played at regular intervals. The uniforms have already arrived.

Basketball will be followed by indoor baseball, hand ball and tennis. Courts and diamonds will be fitted up in a vacant lot near the hall and a lighting system installed.

MENASHA VERY QUIET ON FIRST DAY OF YEAR

Menasha—With the banks, postoffice, city offices and most of the stores and other business places closed, Menasha started the new year in a very quiet way. A few of the manufacturing plants are in operation, but they are confined almost exclusively to those that find it less expensive to run than to close down. Most of the filling stations closed at noon for the remainder of the day.

BOY BREAKS BONE WHILE SKATING ON LITTLE LAKE

Menasha—William, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Nash, Lake-st, fractured his collarbone while skating Tuesday on Little Lake Butte des Morts.

MENASHA PERSONALS

Menasha—Urban Leonard of Kenosha is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Leonard, Chute-st. Sylvester Tuchscherer spent New Year's day with Milwaukee friends. Miss Sarah Elliot has accepted a position in the Sheboygan vocational school and leaves for Sheboygan the latter part of the week.

PLYMOUTH WHIPS CO. 1, 35-40, IN FINE CAGE GAME

Military Squad, Weakened by Loss of Two Men, Puts Up Stiff Fight

Menasha—Co. 1 basketball team lost to Plymouth Wednesday night by a score of 35 to 40 at Plymouth. It was one of the finest exhibitions seen on the Plymouth floor and was anybody's game up to the last two minutes when Steffas, Plymouth's center, tossed two ringers. Three times during the game Neenah was only one point behind. A streak of luck gave Plymouth the four winning points. Neither Christoph or Wall were with the locals, Jorgenson and A. Kuehl filling the vacancies, playing excellent ball. Other members of the Neenah aggregation were H. Kuehl, Chapelle, Madsen and Creaven. If the locals play against Two Rivers at the local armory Thursday night like they played against the Plymouth team, the game will be one of the best seen here this season. The regular lineup will appear Thursday night.

NEENAH SOCIETY

Neenah—A number of schoolmates of John Driscoll were entertained Wednesday evening at a New Year party. The affair was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. Milo Jackson. Games and refreshments kept the young folks busy until midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Toepel, Oak-st, entertained a number of their friends Wednesday evening. Cards and a dinner were features of the evening. Fifty couples were in attendance.

Wednesday evening at Knights of Pythias New Years ball. The affair was for members and their ladies and was given at Castle hall.

The Young Ladies sodality of St. John church will give a card party in St. John school hall New Year's night. The party is open to the public, and schaffkopf, whist and rummy will be played.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller entertained 24 guests at dancing and cards New Year's eve at their home, 394 Nassau-st. Music was furnished by the Olympia orchestra of Appleton.

Robert and John Schiebel entertained a group of high school students New Year's eve at their home, on Broad-st. The guests saw the old year out and the new year in.

AUTOMOBILE BADLY DAMAGED BY BLAZE

Neenah—Crossed wires in a touring car owned by Reinhold Babbett, Lime Kiln road, Wednesday night, caused a fire which badly damaged the machine. While returning from this fire the fire department stopped to extinguish a chimney fire at the J. Finch residence, Fairview-ave.

FINED $5 FOR LEAVING MOTORCYCLE CUTOOT OPEN

Neenah—A fine of $5 and costs for opening the cutout on his motorcycle was assessed against Harvey Peterson Wednesday afternoon, by Justice C. B. Baldwin. Peterson appeared in court to answer to the charge.

SHAPIRO AND SHEPHERD IN FIRST CRASH OF YEAR

Congested traffic on New Year's eve contributed to at least one accident to the 1925 list of the Appleton police department. A collision occurred at 3:50 Thursday morning on Oneida-st between an automobile of Jacob Shapiro, 759 Lawe-st, and an automobile of Wayne Shepherd, Y. M. C. A. The only damage, however, consisted of a bent left rear fender on the Shapiro car and a bent left front fender on the Shepherd car.

The Friends We Made and The Friends We Kept

To them we owe thanks and deep gratitude for their help in the year just closing. And we feel that our greatest success has been in the Friends We Made and the Friends We Kept.

Greater than sales, greater than profit, more substantial than gain are these friendships we have made.

To live up to the confidences placed in us is a constant duty—a constant light that shows the way to do more, to give more, to help more.

And this spirit of good-will—this hope that we may always "Do Unto Others" means better existence for every one of us at this store.

So we all say to you—A Happy New Year—as we leave the old year with many happy memories of the privilege of serving you and enjoying your full friendship.

Astrologist Sees Troublous Times For 1925 Great Leader Will Arise From Crisis

By LARRY BOARDMAN
Washington—A year of treachery, sickness, death, restlessness, war and labor troubles—
A year in which the people of America will demand their rights, though their fate will lie in the hands of others.
This cheerful prognostication for 1925 is made by Madame Marcia, Washington astrologist, famous for her predictions of important events, including the death of President Harding.
Madame Marcia explains that the country will start its new year under the zodiac sign Libra.
"Libra stands for justice and a balancing of accounts," she explains. "It is the sign of the United States and is sometimes called The Eagle."
"Under this sign the minds of the people will revert to the old colonial days and they will demand a reduction of taxes, such as the income tax, and repeal of laws infringing on personal liberty, such as the prohibition law."
"But their fate will be in the hands of others—government officials and foreign nations which try to dictate our policies, as in the case of the sinking of the battleship Washington."
Libra also stands for wild gambling and Madame Marcia predicts that millions will be lost and won on the stock exchange.
MERCURY TO BREED RESTLESSNESS AND TRICKERY
"The moon will be afflicted by seven planets," she declares—"Venus, Mercury, Mars, Uranus, Jupiter, Neptune and Saturn, which is a particularly bad omen."
"The influence of Venus will make America as a country of kindly and tolerant with good intentions toward all. Her people will be amiable and pleasure-loving. This, however, will be more than counterbalanced by the influence of Mercury, which breeds restlessness and trickery."
"Labor troubles will result from this and it would be well to watch treaties—such as the disarmament pact—signed with other nations."
"A government scandal, such as Tea Pot Dome, is in the offing, due to break this year."
"The Mercury influence will also make us quarrel with our neighbors, Canada and Mexico, and these quarrels may be augmented into wars by the influence of Mars."
"Wars with England and Japan are not unlikely, though they will probably not come this year."
Madame Marcia points out that the influence of Neptune is for power and money, but that this will be offset by the influence of Saturn, which will make money tight and tie up the country's finances.

"Worst of all," says she, "is that the moon and Uranus are in the house of sickness. There will be much ill-health troubles of the heart and lungs, and other ailments which doctors will be unable to diagnose."
"Sickness and death will visit many of the country's leaders and celebrities."
"There will be many transportation troubles affecting street cars, bus lines, and particularly railroads. All this, added to general mental sickness and the restlessness of labor will cause turbulence and dissolution.
GREAT LEADER WILL RISE TO OCCASION
"Out of the dissolution a great leader will arise—a second Washington or Lincoln—who will put the country back on its feet."
"This, however, will not be until Libra has run its course and the zodiac sign, Scorpio, is in ascendance."
"Misfortune will overtake President Coolidge some time near inauguration in March. Either he will be visited by illness or some official he depends much upon will die."
"Financial conditions will be at their worst in January and November. In April there will be war, or rumor of war either between capital and labor, or with some foreign country. Possibly both."
"In January will come a partial eclipse of the sun, its path stretching from California to Buffalo, N. Y. In the eclipse zone will be devastation and destruction, such as cyclones, earthquakes and floods."

BADGER EXPORTS GROW $4,000,000

Wisconsin Still Ranks Thirtieth Among States in Value of Exports

Wisconsin not only continued its upward trend in merchandise exports, jumping its figures over $4,000,000 above the figures of the previous quarter, but maintained its relative standing of thirtieth position among the states and territories of the Union, according to statistics covering the quarter ended September 30, 1924, just released by the Department of Commerce.

Reaching figures of $22,526,721, as compared with $18,770,608 and $18,367,521 for the first and second quarters, respectively, Wisconsin led its nearest rival, Virginia, by nearly $1,000,000, replacing Virginia and Washington in the list and being superseded by Georgia and Minnesota.

Rye continued to hold first place in commodities exported, being valued at $4,072,308 for the quarter under review, as compared with $3,080,345 for the previous quarter. Then came wheat shipments with valuations of $4,058,909, followed by agricultural machinery and implements valued at $1,830,920; Leather $1,413,122; bacon $1,146,393, and hams and shoulders at $1,142,821.

The first ten states included in the tabulation, and the amounts of their exports are New York with figures of $175,909,180; Texas $163,205,839; Pennsylvania $71,834,632; Illinois $70,755,612; California $54,374,555; New Jersey $49,852,174; Louisiana $46,470,829; Michigan $39,718,774; Ohio $31,071,984, and Massachusetts with $27,702,446. Georgia also topped Wisconsin with a lead of nearly $2,000,000.

Grand totals for the first nine months of the year give Wisconsin figures of $87,631,910, and fourteenth place in the relative standing of all the states. This is $1,620,112 less than that registered by Georgia. Just ahead of Wisconsin on the list, and $10,473,042 more than the grand totals of Maryland, runner-up to Wisconsin.

CHURCH ROBBER IS IN OSHKOSH JAIL WAITING SENTENCE

Man Who Burglarized Sister's Home Here Enters Plea of Guilty

Philip Harkelski, who robbed the Sacred Heart school sisters' home of $100 on Dec. 13, while the sisters were at mass, pleaded guilty in municipal court in Oshkosh Tuesday morning to a charge of burglarizing the parish house, accused by the Rev. Joseph P. Gabryszyk in Oshkosh on Dec. 14. The matter of sentence was taken under advisement until Jan. 6.

Harkelski was apprehended in Oshkosh the day after he burglarized the local sisters' home. He was about to prowl through the residence of the Rev. Father Gabryszyk, when his housekeeper, Miss Martha Zielenki, detected him. She pursued him into the street and her cries attracted a passerby, who aided in his capture.

Harkelski also is believed to have robbed the sisters' houses of two other Oshkosh Catholic churches, as well as a number of others in various parts of the state.

RADIO PROGRAMS

The feature of a week of features will be the treat in store for radio listeners Thursday night. World famous Victor record artists of the first rank will present the first of a series of attractive programs at 8 o'clock C. S. T. John McCormack, famous Irish tenor and Lombard, both head the excellent group of artists. They will be assisted by Edwin Schneider at the piano and Kennedy, the violinist. Other features of the program are the Shannon Male Quartet and the Victor Salon Orchestra directed by Nat Shilkret. The program will be broadcast through station WCAP, New York City and relayed through WJAR, Providence; WPEL, Boston; WFL, Philadelphia; WCAB, Pittsburgh; WCAP, Washington, D. C.; WDBH, Worcester, Mass.; WGR, Buffalo. Listen for McCormack's "Mother Macabree."

WEAT also presents several other stars including a joint recital by Louise Stallings, mezzo-soprano and Jorgen Bendix, the famous Danish baritone; a program by the Steving String Quartet; cello solos by Lucien Schmidt; a musical by the Waldorf Astoria Concert orchestra; a group of songs by the Brahms Quartet; famous songs by Kitaru Tsumash, famous American-Indian tenor; Vincent Lopez Hotel Pennsylvania Dance Orchestra.

Basketball fans, don't forget the big game Tuesday night. Ohio State meets Butler at Columbus in what should be the best game in the west this year. Ohio has five regulars from last year's second place team and is looked upon as the strongest contender for this year's Big Ten title. Butler, last year's National Amateur champs of the country, has wall-popper Wisconsin, Iowa, and Missouri by large scores this year. Time in on WBOA, the State university station at Columbus on 360 meters and get the play by play results. The station comes in right near WERH, Chicago. The game starts at 8 o'clock, C. S. T.

Other good programs for Thursday night special orchestra programs from WOC, WZZ, KDKA, (Little Symphony orchestra), WJW, KOA, KGO and WCCO. KTV presents a New Year's frolic and the anniversary program of the opening of its Hearst Square studio. WGT's program is a real one to start the year right. It starts with dinner music by the Hotel Ten Eyck Trio at 5:30, C. S. T. At 7 o'clock John F. Quinlan, baritone and Earl Rice, pianist, present a program. This is followed by an excellent organ recital by Marcel Dupre on the Wanamaker organ. New York, New York, which also is broadcast by WJZ and an organ recital by our old friend Stephen E. Bosclair, from Proctor's Harmonium. Rescinders Hall, Albany.

PERHAPS HUNTERS SHOULD HAVE LOOKED IN ORCHARDS

Farmers of this vicinity are complaining about the great amount of damage being done to orchards by rabbits. While hunters are grumbling about the scarcity of rabbits, there seems to be no dearth of them in farm orchards. The information comes a little late for the hunters for the open season on rabbits closed on Jan. 1. Some farmers have been forced to wrap far paper around their apple and other fruit trees in order to keep the bark from being gnawed off.

These Items Tell How Car Industry Has Grown In Last 25 Years

POSTMASTER HESS of Indianapolis joins other postmasters in an enthusiastic statement to the effect that automobiles soon may be used for handling the mails. Hess says Washington to permit him to carry on an experiment at Washington.

A house on wheels is a show for residents of Wabash avenue Chicago. The contraption has taken several days to proceed a mile or so along the avenue. It is an automobile affair, belonging to George Washington, 481 Wabash avenue.

The Germans want a motor fuel which presents no danger of explosion or fire. A prize of $500 is offered to anyone who will find it. The product must be more expensive than gasoline.

New York Automobile Club expects the first signboards for motorists around about New York. The signs are going up between New York and Bridgeport. Later the road to Albany is to be tackled.

Automobiles are beginning to develop a language of their own. The "chauffeur" who "searches" but fails to show skill is a "chauffard."

Century Motor Vehicle Company, Syracuse, votes to increase its capital stock from $80,000 to $100,000. Practically all the stockholders were present at the meeting.

In Baltimore the United States Express Company is considering the feasibility of substituting automobiles for horse-drawn vehicles.

Auto bus service has been established in Passaic, N. J. The company is organized with a $50,000 capital stock. The charge is 10 cents a single fare.

Alfred Vanderbilt, while out riding in his new automobile, is brought close to a serious accident when he pulls the wrong lever, permitting the car to run backward over a precipice into the sea.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor startles society and sends a thrill up the spine of the young automobile industry by making a social call in her brougham automobile. The car made quite a showing with its liveried driver.

In Paris statistics are published, showing that over a certain period of time, one death and 33 injuries resulted from automobiles. In the same period of time there had been 67 deaths and 745 injuries from horse-drawn vehicles.

Newspapers are filled with accounts of an automobile race at Galesburg, Ill. A three-year-old Duryea raced against a new Winton over a distance of 15 miles. The Winton won, making the 15 miles in 42 minutes and 15 seconds.

So many complaints of speeding on Chicago streets are received by the Chicago City Council that the council is considering enactment of legislation cutting the limit down to five miles an hour.

National Carriage Builders Association, meeting in Indianapolis, votes to admit manufacturers of automobile parts to membership on equal terms with members of the other guild.

NEW BOND ISSUE IS FLOATED BY CHURCH

New bonds of Mount Olive Lutheran church have been received from the printer and are to be issued to those who hold similar securities for the 3-year period just expiring. The total amount is $50,000, representing part of the program for financing the new church building. These bonds will be turned over to Appleton State bank, which has been named custodian by G. D. Ziegler, bond trustee.

Y. M. C. A. ARRANGES CONTEST FOR SWIMMERS

Preparation are being made for a swimming contest which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. pool next week. No definite plans have been completed as yet. Swimmers who take part in the exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. on New Year's day probably will be the entrants. The contest is in charge of Don Gebhardt, assistant physical director, and Ancil Luth, swimming director.

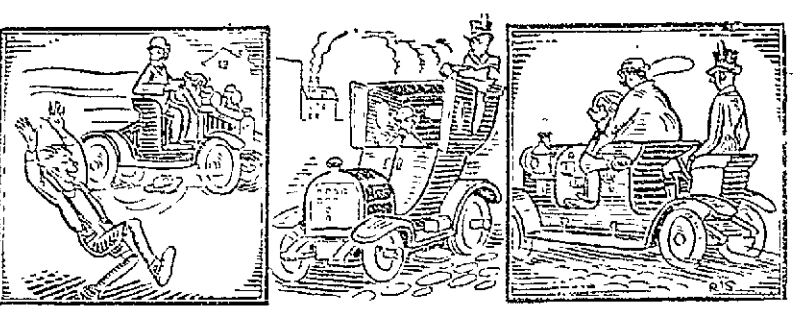

TWO COUNTY COMMITTEES MEET HERE ON TUESDAY

Two county committees will hold meetings next Tuesday in the court house. The grounds and buildings committee will meet at 10 o'clock in the forenoon to act on bills and inspect recent improvements made on county buildings. The finance committee will meet at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to examine the bond furnished by county officers for the ensuing term.

ERIN PLANS HARSH WAR ON SMUGGLERS

Londonderry, Ireland—The smuggling of dutiable goods from London, derry into the Free State has latterly reached such alarming proportions that Free State troops have been drafted to the Donegal border in order to suppress the traffic.

If this step does not suffice, it is proposed to close certain roads with barbed wire to prevent the passage of merchandise until it is thoroughly examined to ensure all cars, motors and trailers for such examination to forbid all traffic across the border after five p. m. and to make a thorough search of each person crossing the line.

MAPLE SUGAR BRINGS PROFIT TO CANADIANS

Ottawa, Ont.—Maple trees in Canada produced sugar and syrup to the value of $5,991,141 in 1924, according to a report issued by the Dominion department of agriculture. This was the highest return in ten years. Sixty thousand farmers in the four eastern provinces were engaged in the maple sugar industry this year, according to the report, and only one-half of the available sugar maples in this area were made productive. Stimulation of the industry through government encouragement, establishment of schools for practical instruction in Quebec and Ontario and protection of maple trees will, it is expected, greatly increase the output next year.

Maple groves, the report points out, are a profitable sideline for the farmers of eastern Canada. Renewed interest in the contest will be evident here within a week or two. Activities slumped during the holidays but all of the ten committees will be asked by Mayor John Goodland, Jr., chairman, to finish their social inventories of Appleton according to the standards of the contest. Each committee is expected to meet at once.

KINSMAN, CORBETT CONTEST SPEAKERS

They Are on List of Better Cities Race Orators—Re- vive Survey Here

Two Appleton men, Dr. D. O. Kinsman of Lawrence college, and Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and one Xenia man, S. P. Shattuck, are listed as available speakers in the letter cities contest of the Wisconsin Conference of Social Work.

A list containing about 50 names has been issued from the conference headquarters in Madison. Those mentioned are experts on various phases of community work such as is embodied in the contest.

Renewed interest in the contest will be evident here within a week or two. Activities slumped during the holidays but all of the ten committees will be asked by Mayor John Goodland, Jr., chairman, to finish their social inventories of Appleton according to the standards of the contest. Each committee is expected to meet at once.

Once the scoring sheets all are prepared a mass meeting will be called at which the chairmen will report their

PASTOR'S CLASSES FOR YOUNG FOLKS START JAN. 5

The pastor's classes, conducted annually for boys and girls who wish to join the church, will start Jan. 5 at the First Congregational church, it has been announced. Those who join the class will be admitted to the church at Easter. The girls class will be conducted at 3:45 on Mondays and the boys class at 4:45 on the same day. Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor will be the instructor.

It is believed that between 40 and 50 young people, between the ages of 12 and 15, will join these classes.

findings as to how good a city Appleton is in which to raise children.

It will be necessary for the contest organization to prepare a brief which can be submitted to the judges when the winner of the state prize of $1,000 is being selected. This will help the judges to familiarize themselves with the factors in which the city claims superiority.

One of Appleton's strongest competitors is Kenosha, where the citizens have banded together in a big way to win the prize. Automobiles there carry windshield stickers and other forms of publicity are in use to keep the issue alive.

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON, CONTINUED

I think I'll just write to Paula, Syd, and explain matters to her in a way, saying that Leslie is staying out of town longer than she expected when she left at the time of Beatrice Grimshaw's wedding. Something must break pretty soon in this damned thing. If it doesn't I shall go crazy. You know mother has made up with that devastating old maid, Priscilla Bradford, and Priscilla is staying at the apartment with her. I think she has nosed around enough so that she knows something is wrong between Leslie and me, but she has been smart enough this time not to speak to me about it.

Mother is getting back into her old captious, critical mood and even Miss Anderson looks worn out with her. Miss Anderson asked me the other night when I thought Miss Bradford was going away, and I bluntly made the same inquiry of mother.

"Why, I don't know, John," mother answered. "She was invited for the wedding anniversary, you know."

"Well, the wedding anniversary didn't come off, mother dear, consequently it seems to me if she had any sense she wouldn't stick around."

"Miss Anderson is about fed up with her," I think. "I was foolish enough to hazard."

"Has Miss Anderson been complaining to you, John?" bridled mother.

"Not at all, not at all, but I get very tired of trying to be polite to that old maid. You know I never liked her, and I've only ended up her in my nose because for some unaccountable reason you seem to like to have her around."

Mother looked heartbroken, and went off to her own apartment. I haven't seen her for the last day or two. Whether the Bradford woman has gone home or is still staying there I do not know, for even Miss Anderson has not shown up.

I don't know what I would do if it were not for little Jack. Do you know, Syd, he's beginning to put words together. He has been backward in talking. I am now teaching him to say: "Jackie loves mother."

I think that will please Leslie, don't you?

My business is going along fine—never had so much of it in my life before, and I attribute it all to Mrs. Atherton. I've been a little out of patience with her, since Leslie went away, however, for she has hardly looked at me, and if she were a mind to, she could brighten my loneliness a lot. I like to talk to her, she always has something original to say.

Now, Syd, I hope you won't be as stubborn as Leslie has been. Do you think I could go over to the Hamilton's without shattering my dignity at all. I don't know just how much Mother Hamilton knows about Leslie and my misunderstanding, but I imagine Leslie has told her. I send that telegram, particularly as I did not answer her telegram about the boy at all. To tell you the truth, I didn't know what to say. I didn't want to refuse, and I didn't want to comply until I had made up my mind what to do.

There, old man, you have my whole story since you left, and I have only one piece of news to send you. Ruth Ellington has married Walter Burke. I hope she will be happier than she was with Harry. I never cared much for her, but Leslie loved her. She certainly has stepped into a mine of money; the Burke fortune has troubled in the last three years.

For heaven's sake, write to me immediately. I am in a mess.

JACK.

Every Human Has Double Set Of Actions

BY ALBERT APPLE

Here is some common sense and an idea that will be new to most people. William Van De Wall, a Pennsylvania state official, says: "Our intellectual life has progressed at a more rapid rate than our emotional development. The struggle of very primitive fundamental instincts, revealing themselves through imperious emotional demands, with present day conditions and social demands, is claimed by many scientists to be at the bottom of many mental disturbances."

In other words, modern man has an enlightened twentieth century intellect obeying and serving primitive emotions.

Stevenson, in writing "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," advanced the idea that in every man two natures struggle for supremacy, one good, one evil. The good being is intellectual and spiritual.

The evil being is emotional. All of us are descended from brutes. And their brutish emotions still lurk in us. We have inherited them, though through long generations we have, to varying extent, learned to repress our brute natures.

But, whether silent or expressed in a torrent of curses, is a repression of an inherited primitive emotion that led to physical attack, even murder.

In evolution, there are "throwbacks to primitive types." A long succession of very decent fathers and mothers may have a son, for instance, who is a "throwback" to a brutal ancestor of long ago. Repressed primitive instinct to explode, break through—produce a fiend.

Gaze At The Ideal Girl For 1924-25

THELMA HILL

Hollywood—Now is the season for forecasting—complacency, nervousness, varying, according to individual temperament.

Those who guide the destinies of the studios listen, ear close to the ground, or strut erect with the security of "inside information."

Consequently it is the season when Mack Sennett, undisputed dean of West Coast judges of feminine beauty, announces the style in girls for the 1924-25 season.

He has done so, palm going to Miss Thelma Hill as the ideal bathing girl of the times. Palm branches, incidentally, may extend as far eastward as Emporia, Kas., for it is from there that Miss Hill comes.

"The boyish figure remains the ideal toward which misses and matrons will strive," is the announcement from the Sennett lot.

"Pronounced curves, no. Wasp-waists, also no. Slight and lithe, grace in slender motion, more 'stream line' than otherwise—this is the coming style."

Miss Hill is a member of the famous Sennett Bathing Girl brigade. Honor achieved by her may be conceived when it is considered that 1000 testimental young ladies a year seek entrance thereto.

The measurements which won the crown for the Emporia miss are:

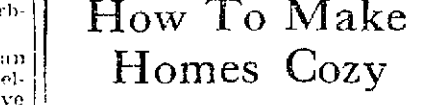

- Height, 5 feet 3 1/2 inches.
- Weight, 112 pounds.
- Neck, 12 1/2 inches.
- Bust, 34 inches.
- Waist, 24 inches.
- Hips, 35 inches.
- Calf, 13 inches.
- Arm, 13 inches.
- Forearm, 9 inches.
- Wrist, 5 1/2 inches.
- Upper arm, 10 inches.
- Thigh, 21 inches.

on the lid—keeping our brutal natures imprisoned. Some find it easy. To others it is a lifelong fight. Accordingly, walking the straight and narrow path is more commendable in some cases than in others. The man who can be good only by powerful effort, but nevertheless is good, deserves more credit than the one who has few if any "cravings" to jump over the traces.

It works the other way, too. Criminals, unfortunately, who have inherited more of the brute cannot be judged by the same standards as others. An enlightened system of justice is gradually recognizing this and making allowances for it in inflicting punishment.

How To Make Homes Cozy

RIGHT SIZE FOR SOFA

RIGHT SIZE FOR SOFA

In a room of average size, it will be found that a six-foot sofa will fit into the furniture scheme better than any other kind. The larger varieties of sofa should never be used, except in a large room, where more than enough space it at hand.

In evolution, there are "throwbacks to primitive types." A long succession of very decent fathers and mothers may have a son, for instance, who is a "throwback" to a brutal ancestor of long ago. Repressed primitive instinct to explode, break through—produce a fiend.

Adventures Of The Twins

COCK-A-DOODLE-DO!

"We want some more riddles," said the Fat Man of Bombay to the Twins after lunch. "I wish the Riddle Lady would come back. It's far more fun to smoke and think than it is to just smoke," he went on, as he lighted the pipe that the snipe had flown off with.

What was that, my dears? How did he get it back? Why—I don't know. I never thought of it, but may be he got it back evidently, for there is was right in his mouth and he was smoking it.

And he said he wanted more riddles, and the Twins wanted more riddles and everybody wanted more riddles.

So Nancy said she would be Riddle Lady as she had the bees. She got up on a chair and read this riddle while everybody listened. "He wakes me up in the early morn. With his squawky voice like the fish-man's horn."

Though his voice is loud—his words are few. He says over and over 'Cock-a-doodle-do!'

"I knew it! I just knew it!" cried the Fat Man of Bombay, taking his pipe out of his mouth and marching off. "I can't stand anything about a bird ever since that snipe scared me so. And this riddle is going to be about a bird. I just knew it. I feel it in my bones."

And away he went. Nancy went on reading. "I think he's ashamed and he knows he's mean."

For when I — — "What's that? What's that?" cried the Fat Man coming back. "Do you mean me?"

"No," said Nancy. "I was just reading some more of the riddle."

"Oh, I see!" leaped the Fat Man. "It's the bird that's meant. Well, I think I'm going to like this riddle, so I'll stay."

"Do be quiet, please," said Daddy Gander. "There's too much talking."

"There certainly is," said Mother Goose who liked to have the last word.

So Nancy went on and this time she finished. "I think he's ashamed and he knows he's mean."

For when I am dressed and washed and clean, I run out of doors and I call to him 'Shoo!'

Then he jumps on a fence and says

OVER 12,200 NET PAID CIRCULATION

A New Circulation Record For Appleton Newspapers

The following figures will give you the story of the POST-CRESCENT'S RAPID circulation growth

Post and Crescent (Before Consolidation) 7,200

POST-CRESCENT CIRCULATION FIGURES

December 1920, 7,625

December 1921, 9,283

December 1922, 9,727

December 1923, 10,283

December 1924, Over 12,200

Circulation Plus Reader-Interest

The above figures unfold a remarkable story of vigorous newspaper growth and development following a policy of striving to give advertisers the widest possible circulation in Appleton's logical trading territory.

Paralleling this aggressive fight for circulation, and circulation is the fundamental principle upon which advertising costs of all advertising media are calculated, The Post-Crescent has spared neither money nor effort to develop to the utmost the READER INTEREST of the newspaper.

There is a great variance of reader interest in various publications and it is developed by rendering greater and greatest service to the public. THE MORE READER-INTEREST MANIFESTED IN A PUBLICATION THE GREATER THE RESPONSIVENESS TO ADVERTISING MESSAGES CONTAINED THEREIN.

What The Post-Crescent Has Done to Develop Reader Interest

An analysis of the various interesting and valuable features which make up the average days Post-Crescent shows conclusively that The Post-Crescent in no ways falls short of rendering the same service as do its Metropolitan contemporaries.

World news is supplied by the Associated Press, the greatest news gathering organization in existence. Local news (Appleton and Vicinity) is gathered by an efficient staff of some 30 correspondents scattered throughout the circulation scope of The Post-Crescent. Pages are devoted to Kaukauna, New London, and Neenah-Menasha news, thus giving these localities a DAILY newspaper devoted to their own respective local affairs. The "Women's Page" containing style features, beauty hints, household aids, etc., and a well developed Society page tends to render the paper indispensable to the feminine readers. A full Comic page, Market Page, Sports Page and Stage and Screen review, develops and holds reader interest to the utmost. Also a well developed classified page offers an invaluable medium of selling, buying and exchanging for the public.

Post-Crescent Outstanding Advertising Medium

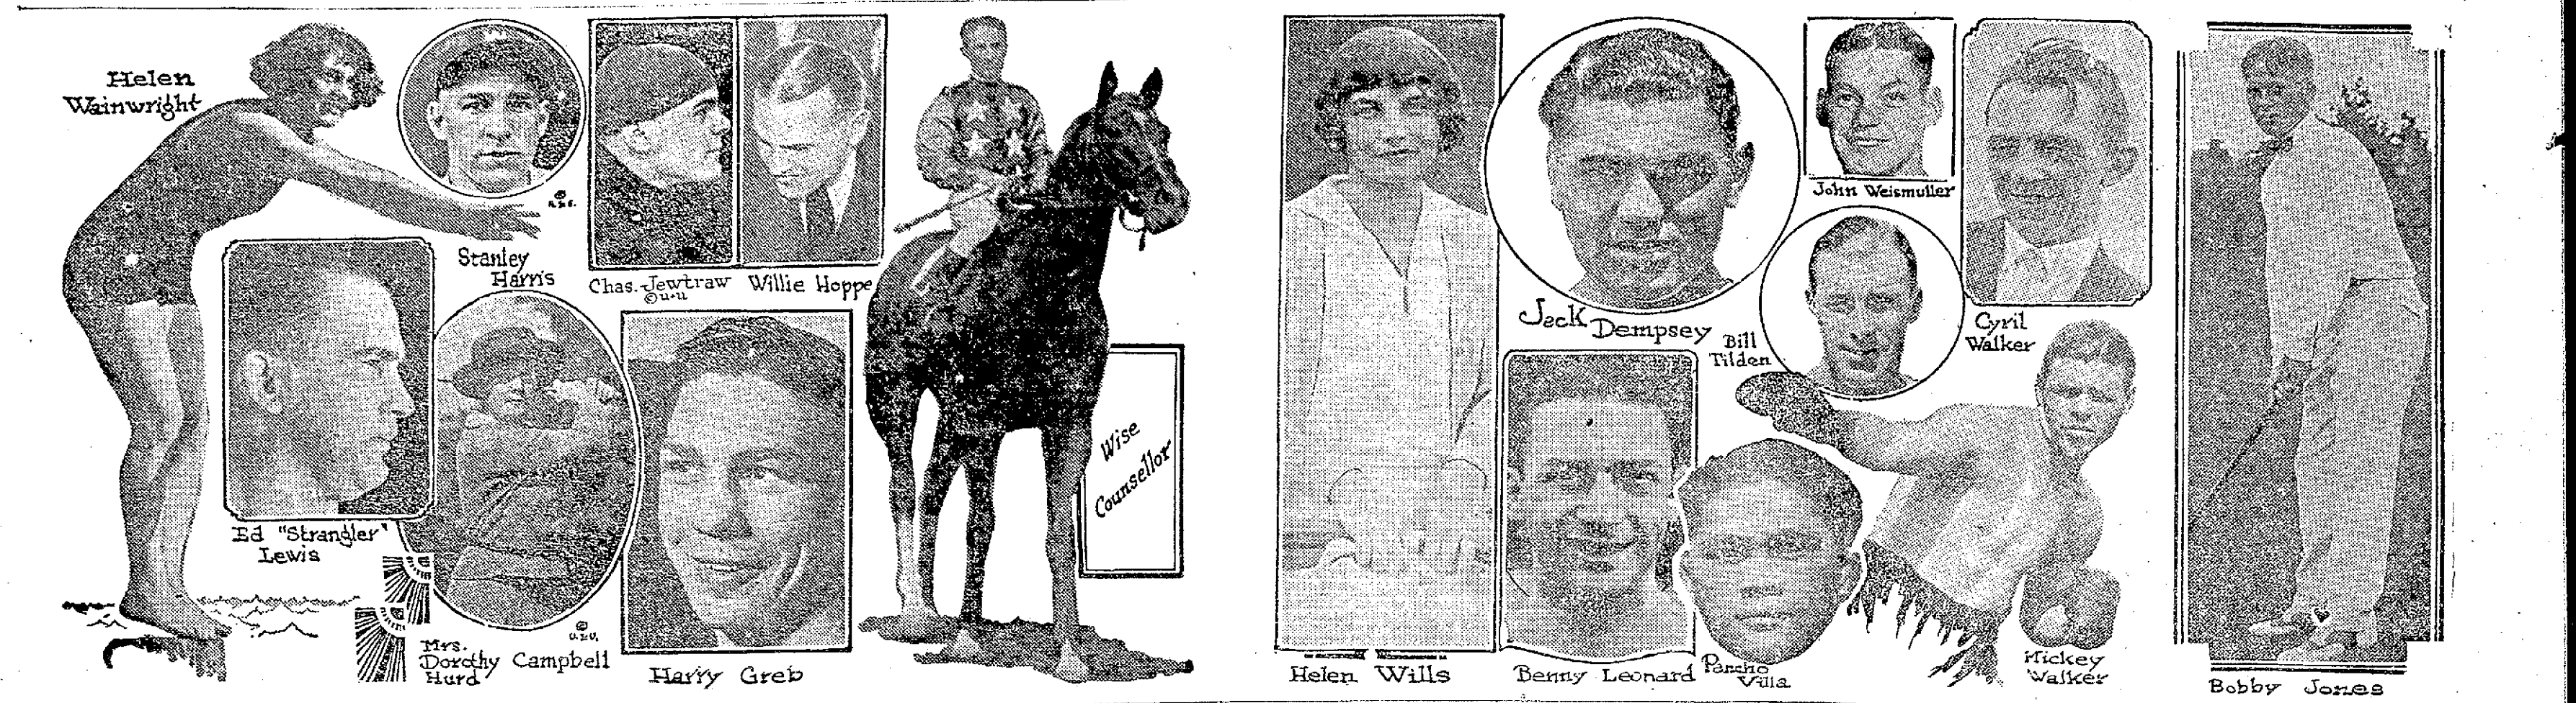

Considering all these various features the advertiser must readily agree that The Post-Crescent is the outstanding medium in the Central Fox River Valley in which to carry his advertising Messages.

AND THE VITAL POINT FOR THE MERCHANT AND BUSINESS MAN TO REMEMBER IS THIS: THAT EVEN WITH THE 67% INCREASE IN CIRCULATION SINCE ITS INCEPTION — THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO BUY ADVERTISING CHEAPER PER INCH PER THOUSAND CIRCULATION IN THE POST-CRESCENT TODAY THAN AT ANY TIME IN ITS HISTORY.

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

"Wisconsin's Fastest Growing Daily Newspaper"

PAST YEAR BROUGHT FEW NEW SPORT CHAMPIONS

Few New Sport Champs Were Crowned In 1924

The biggest upset of the year in sport circles was staged in major league baseball.

Washington, more or less an outsider, not only won the American League pennant but also captured the world series from the Giants.

The triumph of Washington was all the more unusual, since Stanley Harris, youthful manager, was making his big league debut.

Rogers Hornsby repeated his specialty of leading the National League in batting, while Babe Ruth showed the way in the American.

Hornsby, by taking down the 1924 honors, established a new National League record, the winning of the title for five successive years.

Ruth, who has tasted of almost every other baseball sweets, finally achieved his ambition of leading the American League in batting.

Walter Johnson, famous pitcher of the champion Washington club, and Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn's hurling ace, were voted the most valuable players in their respective leagues.

In football, Notre Dame had a team that must be rated one of the greatest of all time. In the east, Yale, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania had the edge. Chicago won the Big Ten championship and Stanford noosed out California on the coast.

Once again "Red" Grange, Illinois meteor, was the outstanding player of the year. He was a unanimous choice of every all-star eleven selected.

Bill Tilden, although harder pressed than usual, still retained the title of the world's greatest tennis exponent. Vincent Richards gets second position. As usual the United States won the Davis cup, the world series of tennis.

Among the women, Helen Wills, the California marvel, dominated the tennis field as clearly as did Bill Tilden.

It was as usual a bad year for golf champions. No major champion succeeded in repeating. Bobby Jones took the amateur title away from Max Marston, but in turn was deprived of his open laurels by Cyril Walker.

Gene Sarazen lost further prestige by his failure in the open professional championship, which went to Walter Hagen, also a victor for the second time in three years in the British open.

Dorothy Hurd of Pittsburgh provided an upset by winning the women's championship, succeeding Edith Cummings.

For the first time in years thick Evans was unable to win the western amateur, his monopoly of this important sectional tournament being broken by Harrison Johnson of St. Paul.

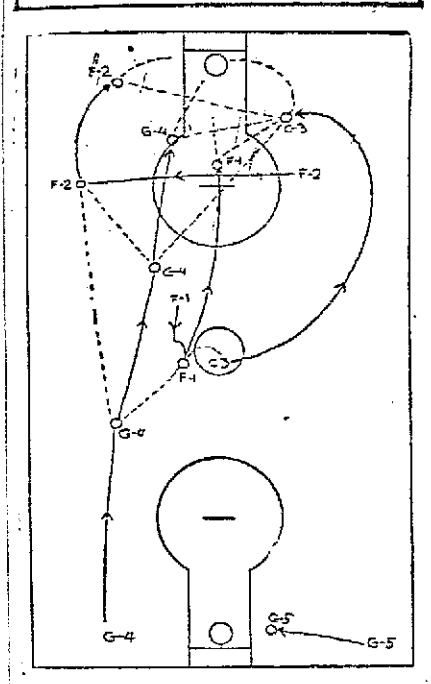

Larry Nabholz made the most rapid forward stride of any young professional in the country last year, while George Von Elm of the far west was the leading amateur, next to Jones.

Aside from activity in the bantam weight division, the year was a flop in Flatland. The bantamweight title changed hands twice. Al Goldstein took it away from a shadow of the old Joe Lynch, and was in turn dethroned by Eddie Cannon all Martin just as the old year was limping out the back door.

Johnny Dundee grew too fat to defend the featherweight title and gave it up. A featherweight tourney was held and it slummed down to Kid Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., and Danny Kramer, the Philadelphia soupaw, one of whom will be crowned champion early in January.

The total and complete explosion of the Luis Firpo heavyweight boom was another note of interest. The so-called Wild Bull looked a like fight against Harry Wills and Charley Welner, bearing out predictions of experts, observers that he would be a mark for any fairly good batter who fought him intelligently.

Pennant Plays - In - Basketball

By COACH ED. STEWART
Texas, Champions Southwest

In this bat-off play Forward 1 is 15 feet from center at the toss-in. He runs close, jumps high and bats ball to Guard 4, who is also on run. Guard 4 throws straight up the floor to Forward 2, who has cut over. Forward 2 returns ball immediately to Guard 4, who drives ball hard to Center 3, who has gone up on opposite side. Center 3 may shoot or pass to Forward 1 who has returned straight up middle of court, to Forward 2 coming in from opposite side or to Guard 4, who has never stopped his charge up field. Guard 5 becomes basket guard.

LAWRENCE QUINT READY TO BATTLE CONCORDIA JAN. 2

Blue Cagers Cut Short Vacations to Prepare for Game at Armory G

With one victorious game behind them, Lawrence cagers Thursday were ready to meet Concordia college of Milwaukee in their second game of the season on Jan. 2 in Armory G, and expected to open the New Year with another game in their credit. Most of the Lawrence quint their Christmas vacation short for several days in order to prepare for the game, and have been working every afternoon for several days.

Steno Hilde, first name, in which they easily defeated the strong Milwaukee quint here despite their lack of experience and consequent loss playing. The Blues have shown considerable improvement in all departments of the game. Their style of five-man defense is better than usual, while Zossman, long Hilde, and Hilde, are quick to make adjustments of any strategy in the hands of the hostiles.

Assman, at center, seems to have hit his old stride, generally outjumping his opponent and following up after every rebound, and Hilde, at guard position, is quickly up as good as any guard in the league. As for this team of veterans, Hilde, will make things extremely warm for the visitors.

"DUCKY" POND OF YALE
"Ducky" Pond is to continue as Yale's man of destiny. Not only will he captain the Yale baseball team this spring but also needs to retain his post as one of the best pitchers in the college ranks.

AZZARELLA GIVEN EDGE IN BATTLE WITH JACK KANE

Preliminaries All Are Doped as Close Matches on Thursday Card

With the stage all set for one of the biggest fight cards in years in Armory G here, Joe Azzarella, "Milwaukee Buzzsaw," was favored to win over Jack Kane of Chicago in the windup, while the betting was about even on the preliminaries.

Kane, a gritty fighter at all times, carried a healthy wallop in both hands, according to reports, but lacked the ring generalship which promises to carry Azzarella to the top rank. Both boys are mixers, and the fight was expected to be a hot one.

Washie Hendricks of Kaukauna had defeated Battling Beck of Fond du Lac twice before his meeting with him Thursday afternoon, but on each occasion Beck had gone in without sufficient training. This time he came fully prepared, and it looked as though the Kaukauna scrapper would have a hard row to hoe. Beck showed himself willing to take several in order to land one good blow, and all he got did not seem to bother him much. Hendricks makes it a point to be in condition at all times, and was in the best shape possible when he weighed in.

Boya also worked hard for his match with Young Shaw of Fond du Lac, planning to wipe out his defeat by Young Chuck of Green Bay by defeating the Fondy man who whipped Chuck.

Micky Mack and Earl Rogers, scheduled to open the festivities, have met on several previous occasions and were evenly matched. This time a struggle added interest to their battle, and it was expected they would shed blood freely after they got started.

Mark Cullin of Appleton was to represent the Wisconsin Boxing commission. Dauber Jaeger was to be the third man in the ring, and Frank Cook was ready to do the announcing.

Post-Crescent Ice Tourney Aims To Break Entry Marks

When the starting gun barks to open the Fox River Valley skating tournament at Jones Park on Jan. 18, prospects are that all previous entry records will be broken. For the first time since the tournament became an annual affair all skaters in the valley have been declared eligible whereas in previous years the entries were confined to Appleton.

Every skater in the valley will have an equal chance to win one of the valuable prizes offered by the Post-Crescent, with the exception of last year's champions, Percy Sharp in the men's class and Bertha Bell in the girls' division. Winners of the medals in the 1924 races will not be permitted to compete in the same events this year but will be advanced to the next highest divisions.

Competition between skaters of the various cities in the valley is expected to be extremely keen. Kaukauna, Neenah-Menasha, and Appleton probably will be the hottest contenders, with several of the smaller outlying towns also close to the front.

RIVALS MILWAUKEE MEET
With the exception of the annual races in Milwaukee, the Post-Crescent tourney probably will draw a larger attendance than any other winter sport in the state. Thousands of spectators have lined the sloping sides of Jones park in previous years, and with the scope of the meet extended to include the entire valley, the attendance stands a good chance of being almost doubled.

The championships won in this tourney will be safe from dispute throughout the district, because the tournament covers the entire valley. Trophies won on the afternoon of Jan. 18 therefore will be of special value.

The entry lists will be closed at midnight on Jan. 15. Application blanks will appear on the sport page of the Post-Crescent daily up to this date, and prospective competitors are urged to fill them out at their earliest possible convenience.

ORANGE FIVE SEES WIN AT SHEBOYGAN

Appleton-High School Prospects Brighten After Hard Workouts

After daily workouts in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium during the holidays, Appleton high school basketball five has gained more confidence for its opening contest at Sheboygan on Jan. 2, and Thursday was ready to give the Chalk City schoolers a hard battle.

The Orange five started working several weeks ago with prospects looking very good, because the almost complete lack of regulars in its ranks. Courtney, allstate guard last year, was the only regular back, and one or two second stringers of the previous season formed the nucleus of coach Julie Kevin's squad.

Several of these second stringers who spent last year under the guiding hand of Guy Barlow with an occasional hand from David Wilson, are showing up better than was expected and it looks as though Appleton may have a chance at the championship after all.

Kevin had not yet made a definite choice of his lineup, but Courtney, Pfeiffer, Sol Fraser, and Rowley were practically sure of a place on the starting quintet.

WEST EXCITED AS FOUR BIG TEAMS STRIP FOR FIGHT

Notre Dame-Leland Stanford Game Occupies Spotlight on New Years Day

By Associated Press
Pasadena, Calif. — The heart of football fandom beat wildly here Thursday as the undefeated, never-tied team of Notre Dame university faced Stanford's eleven in a Rosebowl battle for east-west gridiron supremacy.

Approximately 50,000 fans held tickets to the game, and other thousands stood out by the stadium's shortage of seats, hoped to glimpse the inviolable chieftain from the edge of the array in which the field of battle nestled.

CALIFORNIA CONFIDENT
Berkeley, Calif. — It was planned for Quakers to be sacrificed Thursday afternoon to make a Berkeley Holiday. The California stadium was the arena, and the Gatekeepers were ready to throw the victims to a hungry lot of Bears, with a throng of spectators looking on in heartless glee.

Less metaphorically, the card was as follows:
University of California, alias the Bears, undefeated in five years; played two tie games this season, vs University of Pennsylvania, the Quakers, unbeaten this season, played one tie; rated one of the three best teams in the east.

HOTEL NORTHERNS DATED FOR FEB. 4

Appleton Kegling Quintet Gets Set for Fond du Lac State Tourney

Dates have been assigned for the Hotel Northern's of Appleton in the state bowling tournament at Fond du Lac, and the 5-man team will do its stuff there on Feb. 4. The Appleton kluggers will roll in the doubles events on Feb. 5.

To get into perfect shape for the mapped out a heavy schedule here now and then in which they will be some of the best teams in this part of the state. Dicks Five of Little Chute is on the program for the first match, with the Kimberly American Legion, St. Josephs Blues, Green Bay reformers, Cherry Blossoms, Kuntz Kandy Kids, Seymour Allys and several other teams to follow.

A trip to St. Paul, Minn., in the near future also is in prospect for the Appleton five, but final arrangements for games still are pending.

Coaches Pick Best Backs Of All Time

New York — Recently 20 coaches, many of whom have been at the game for a score of years either as player or coach, were asked to name an all-time All-American team.

There was a wide difference of opinion everywhere except in the backfield. Here the vote of the coaches was practically unanimous.

Eckersall at quarter, Grange and Thorpe at the halves, and Eddie Mahan at fullback. The last three were top-heavy favorites, although "Bo" McMillan pressed Eckersall hard for the job at quarterback.

"Pop" Warner got the most votes for All-American coach.

FIRO ACCEPTS TERMS TO MEET TOM GIBBONS

By Associated Press
Paris — Luis Firpo has accepted terms from the National Sporting Club for a fight with Tommy Gibbons at St. Paul for a purse of $60,000, the division of which between winner and loser will be determined later. It was announced Wednesday afternoon. Firpo will go to London Friday but is to return to France to train. The date of the fight is not settled, as Gibbons has not yet signed, but probably will be in February.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Frank (Ping) Bodie, former baseball star, filed suit for divorce against Anna Bodie alleging that she spoiled his baseball career.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE BODY BARS SLOW FILMS TO TEACH GRID PLAYS

New York — college football spirit has been violated by the use of motion pictures in instructing one eleven in the tactics of another, according to the National Collegiate Athletic association which Tuesday forbade the use of photographs of any kind among the 230 institutions which it controls.

The ban came too late to have any effect on the Stanford-Notre Dame contest Thursday however. According to reports from the Pacific coast, the Indians were shown in action on the screen and each move was carefully explained to the Stanford eleven by Coach Glenn Warner. Football coaches, probably a majority of them, have regarded the picturing of plays, especially under slow motion, necessary to the instruction of the modern eleven.

VACCINATE CHILDREN OF SUNNY VALLEY SCHOOL

Sunny Valley school. In district No. 2 of the town of Cicero, is one of the schools that has responded wholeheartedly to the appeal of the county health department to have all school children vaccinated during the Christmas vacation. Every pupil in this school has been vaccinated and will be ready to go back to school soon after the first of the year.

Now being waged by the government. Rather than it seemed to come of the conviction that the appointment of men to the Federal Trade commission who will exercise their functions judicially and without stepping beyond the purposes of the law is the way to solve the problem.

The general public follows the work of the Federal Trade commission only in a superficial way but it is a fact that the commission has been used by some competitive war. The government of warding off the oppressive methods of an unfair competitor. The theory back of the Federal Trade commission, of course, is violently opposed by those who feel that the government should not have anything to do with economic wars or the survival of the fittest in any competitive war. The government at Washington, however, has been the refuge of the oppressed ever since business began to be operated on a large scale in America. Just as agriculture runs to Washington, so do the oppressed business-men in the trades. The Federal Trade commission is the only institution here which can take up the cudgels for the underdog when he is himself without funds to engage in endless lawsuits and expensive litigation.

There are other commissions in Washington which effect business very vitally, particularly the Interstate Commerce commission, but the commission against the latter in recent months has been distinguished largely because the commission has been held within limits by the transportation act itself. The commission can determine what are fair freight rates, but only after it has given due consideration to the other phases of the law which require that the roads be permitted to receive a certain return on their investments.

RADICALS WILL NOT REST
The radical group in congress will not rest until they have in some way modified the transportation act so that freight rates can be changed and a flexibility imposed in the Interstate Commerce commission which it is not now enjoying. The effort to get all roads voluntarily to decrease freight rates was a policy of President Harding was not pursued by Mr. Coolidge because of its futility. This program of consolidating railways so as to achieve greater efficiency is now held forth as perhaps the way out of the difficulty. When the roads reduce their expenses of operation by consolidation, it is the hope of the administration that the rate cut in freight rates may be obtained.

Perhaps the most outstanding thing which Mr. Coolidge has done so far with respect to business is his announcement that unless some unforeseen emergency arises he will not call an extra session after next March. He is content to leave Congress to do its work in the present manner, passing the appropriation bills and going home for a legislative moratorium.

FOREIGN RELATIONS
In the all-important field of foreign relations the year 1924 has been marked by the greatest advances since the close of the European War. For the first time in the history of the world a system of reparations which has constantly been discussed by the vision of statesmen in all countries at last was reduced to something besides argument and nationalism. It seems an odd coincidence that in the same year two men passed off life's stage-Woodrow Wilson and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge-the two chief figures in the year decade of the degree of international cooperation that should be given to Europe by the United States.

President Coolidge with the able counsel of the Secretary of State, Charles Evans Hughes, decided to steer a middle course between those who favored the League of Nations and those who advocated isolation. The American plan first presented by Hughes in a speech at New Haven by Mr. Hughes proposing that Americans of expert training and knowledge should sit with representative business men of other countries was adopted and put into effect, being known as the Dawes-Young scheme. It has done more than anything else since the war to establish confidence in the good sense of the countries concerned, and their sincere desire to bring the world back to something approaching normalcy in fiscal relations.

AMERICA GUIDES WHILE THING
The problems are by no means all solved. There are breakers ahead but America effectively though unofficially is guiding the whole thing. There remains one other cloud on the horizon-international debts and the obligations due the United States. Unquestionably this too waits on American initiative and leadership and may be the outstanding achievement of 1925. If it is settled, business in the United States will feel the effects and another factor will be added to the promise of prosperity. World politics is interwoven however to an almost inextricable extent yet with the reparation question reduced to a formula accepted by the Allied and Associated powers as well as Germany, there is hope that its corollary-the debt

JOHNSTON POST IS LEADING STATE IN PAID UP MEMBERS

American Legion Committee Reviews 1924 and Makes Plans for 1925

Oney Johnston post of the American Legion has the largest number of paidup memberships in the state. H. J. Pettigrew, chairman of the executive committee, announced following a meeting of the committee Tuesday night in Conway hotel. At present there are 380 paid up memberships, of which 30 per cent are new. There probably will be many more memberships paid up within the next month, Mr. Pettigrew said. The total membership is now 70 per cent of last year's.

Tentative plans for another membership campaign were made, but the matter will be taken up in detail at subsequent meetings. It is hoped to have a contest at that time with members of the post on competing teams.

C. O. Baetz, chairman of athletics, announced that basketball teams and ward bowling teams had been formed. Much more has been done with athletics this year than ever before, it was brought out.

The committee decided to officially close the blanket sale on Jan. 5, and has requested all holders of books turn them in to Clark Goodman at the Novelty Boot shop at that time. Plans also were taken up for the dance that will be the culmination of the sale.

Every effort has been made to have the Jan. 5 meetings, when the three luncheon clubs are to be guests of the post, the finest possible. The American Legion Saxophone band, formed within the last month, is to entertain.

DANIELSON STARTS 7TH YEAR WITH U. S.

George N. Danielson, United States naturalization examiner, who has been spending the holidays in Appleton left New Year's day for northern Michigan to conduct naturalization hearings.

The examiner is beginning his seventh year in this branch of government service. During the six years of government employ he has traveled by rail and other means a total of 231,557 miles, on a total of distance of nearly ten times around the world. Mr. Danielson's headquarters are in St. Paul and his territory covers northeastern Wisconsin and upper Michigan consisting of 31 counties, 13 of which are in Wisconsin and 18 in Michigan. In his work he has helped at least 10,000 aliens to become United States citizens.

RAINBOW VETERANS PLAN SUMMER CAMP

At the last meeting of the Rainbow Division war veterans a movement was started to erect a cottage on some inland lake for the purpose of club outings and fishing parties. A committee was appointed to investigate the advisability of the venture and the best possible location. Lake Winnebago and Shawano lake have mentioned as favorite sites. Paul Wilke has been placed in charge of the finances for the project. A total of $200 has already been collected.

The Rainbow men of Appleton are planning to send a large delegation to the next national convention. It will be held in July in Chicago, which is the nearest it has ever been held.
